A Progressive Woman.

Every reader knows that Frances E. Willard is a progressive woman. Recently she has become so progressive that walking is too slow for her and she is learning to progress on a bicycle. So the president of the World's Woman's Christian Temperance union will soon be a familiar spectacle on the beautiful highways of Evanston, Ill., gliding gracefully on the pneumatic wheel, which she thinks most healthful and recommends for ladies.

MISS WILLARD ON A BIKE.

As there is no telling what may happen, it is well to give her biography right now. Frances Elizabeth Willard was born in Churchville, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1839, graduated from the Northwestern Female college at Evanston in 1859, taught and traveled for ten years, became a student and writer in Paris, then dean of the Woman's college at Evanston, and finally, in 1874, quit her profession to devote her time to temperance. She has always been an enthusiast on athletics for women and has practiced as she preached. Long may she "wheel." Selah!

Just as well.

Miss Pinkerly (before the good night)—It's raining so now, Mr. Tutter, that you had better take my umbrella.

Tutter—Thanks, Miss Pinkerly, I don't know but I will. But (brightly) I will try and bring it back with me tomorrow night.

Miss Pinkerly—Oh, you needn't trouble yourself, Mr. Tutter, you can just as well send it.—Cloak Review.

A Little Grammar Lesson.

"Liza, you don't seem to be very busy?"

"None; I've finished up all the work they was to be did."

"None, you mean, done."

"Yesum; I've finished up all the work they was to be done did."—Indianapolis Journal.

To Cleanse the System.

Effectually, yet gently, when constive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.

NEAR THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL

Principal Camp Gives Some Valuable Advice.

"A Stitch in Time Saves Nine"—Familiar Condition of a Connecticut Superintendent of Schools—The Debt of Gratitude that is Due a Dartmouth Professor.

The former pupils of Principal L. I. Camp of Dwight school, in New Haven, Conn., are scattered all over the country. Many of them occupy responsible positions in business and professional life, which they feel they have won in a large measure through the early instruction and training received from Principal Camp.

Probably Mr. Camp has given no advice that is more valuable in the nearly two score years which he has labored in educational fields than that contained in the following letter to Wells & Richardson company. He wrote:

"I have taken several bottles of Paine's celery compound this spring, not because I was sick, but because I wanted to keep well. I believe in keeping well and can do it best by the use of this helper of nature."

The close of school is near at hand. Vacation season is almost upon us. Teachers, parents and children should see that the nervous system is strong and vigorous. Follow Principal Camp's example and keep well by the use of the pure medicine that he took.

The superintendent of schools in Newgate, Conn., Mr. Wm. W. Abbott, a Yale graduate, had an experience that exemplifies the marvelous power of Paine's celery compound to restore those who are in the depths of disease and misery. He has written for publication the following statement, under date of May 29:

"A year ago this spring a combination of circumstances conspired to undermine my health, and last fall the confinement to the school room and attention to discipline attacked what little health I had left, so that by Christmas I was physically a wreck. I had no ambition to do anything; I felt unable to move and was truly miserable, and each day I thought that it would probably be the last that I should leave my bed. It was only by the exercise of the greatest will power that I could hold up my head. When I was so low I was advised to try Paine's celery compound and did so. After taking one bottle I was uncertain whether I was really deriving benefit or not. After using the second bottle, however, I found that my health was certainly improved. I have now taken four bottles and my restoration to strength and health is due entirely to the use of this medicine."

The best physicians unite in the statement that Paine's celery compound is of superior value for the weak and debilitated, the nervous, sleepless and all who are run down. It makes people well, gives them new strength and new life. It is pure and harmless, and hence is used in hundreds of families for the children and the aged. In not debilitating whether it is particularly valuable.

MORTGAGE SALE The Sherman Stock.

The stock of Philip Sherman, the Canal street clothing and furnisher, was sold at mortgage sale Saturday morning, June 18, to the highest bidder. We were the lucky purchasers, and having bought this well-selected stock at about 300 on the dollar, we are enabled to give the people of Grand Rapids and western Michigan the benefit of our fortunate deal. The already crowded condition of our own well-stocked store prevents us from disposing of these goods at our own salesroom. But we have placed competent men in charge and beginning Wednesday morning, June 22, at the Sherman store, No. 127 Canal street, we will sell without reserve the entire stock, amounting to about $12,000, at enormously reduced prices. We are forced to dispose of the entire lot before July 5, when the lease of the store expires.

We will sell Suits, Sherman's price $15.00, our price $5.00. Pants, Sherman's price $3.00, our price $1.00. Shirts, Sherman's price 75 cents, our price 19 cents.

All goods will be sold at proportionately low prices. This great mortgage sale will be a picnic for the bargain loving people of Grand Rapids. Sale will begin Wednesday, June 22, at the Sherman store, 127 Canal street.
